Dear Rex,

STAT
STAT
The Director has asked me to reply to your recent letter requesting that [] of OER brief the CNO Executive Panel on 16 May 1974. We are pleased to make Bob available for the briefing, but would like to have him accompanied by his Division Chief [] from the Office of Scientific Intelligence. They are looking forward to their discussion with the Executive Panel. I am sure it will be a useful and productive session.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ed

Edward W. Proctor
Deputy Director for Intelligence

MEMORANDUM FOR: Messrs. Director/Warsh

In checking out the attached with Ernst, it developed that he would prefer to send two others in addition to by the way, is from OSI. I have phoned the Navy action officer for this briefing to see if it is OK to send three. He says "no problem." So they have us scheduled. The attached letter formalizes it (you may want to mention this to the DCI at the Morning Meeting).

Dear Bill,

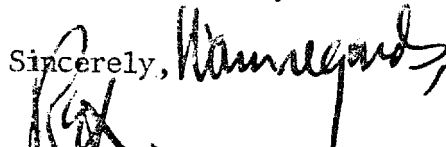

On 20 February you sent me a report entitled "Soviet Economic and Technological Benefits from Detente". Admiral Zumwalt reviewed the report and found it most enlightening. He asked me to inquire whether your action officer (Mr. [redacted] of OER) could brief the CNO Executive Panel on the contents of this report.

The CNO Executive Panel is an advisory board composed of prominent members of the academic, scientific, and business communities who meet periodically to consider subjects of interest to Admiral Zumwalt and to provide him their views and advice. A roster of the current membership is attached.

The Executive Panel is scheduled to meet on 15 and 16 May in room 4D710, the Pentagon. Captain Bill Cockell, the Executive Director, has tentatively scheduled [redacted] presentation for 1400 on 16 May. I anticipate that the format would include thirty minutes of informal remarks by [redacted] followed by another thirty minutes of round-table discussion.

I hope [redacted] will be able to meet with the Panel. All the members possess TOP SECRET and other compartmented clearances, so security should pose no problem. If there is any other information we can provide you, please do not hesitate to have a member of your staff contact either Captain Cockell or Commander Tom Brooks of Admiral Zumwalt's staff. They can be reached on OX4-3165 or OX4-3225.

Sincerely,

E. P. RECTANUS
